

BIOGRAPHY

Keith Ruebeling

President and CEO

Larue Pest Management

Keith Ruebeling is a sixth generation Floridian and a second-generation pest control operator. Keith holds a bachelor's degree in Economics from Florida State University and is certified in all four categories of Pest Control. He began his career in his family business 29 years ago and purchased the company on January 1st of 2015 of which he is currently President and CEO of Larue Pest Management.

Keith served as a Region Director for several years as well as a member of FPMA's Executive Committee and served as its President in 2015.

Keith resides in Fort Myers Florida and has been married to his wife Michele for 27 years. They have three daughters, Emily 24, Caroline 22 and Abigail 20.

WEBSITE

LARUEPEST.COM